

Sabrina Nimmer – License #326

Date: May 7, 2021

Violation:

Code of Alabama 1975, §34-8B-3 – No person, except as otherwise provided by law, shall practice or attempt to practice court reporting in this state or hold himself or herself out as a court reporter unless the person is a licensed court reporter.

Code of Alabama 1975, §34-8B-8 – After January 1, 2007, any person who undertakes or attempts to undertake the practice of court reporting for remuneration without first having procured a license, or who knowingly presents or files false information with the board for the purpose of obtaining a license or who violates this chapter shall be guilty of a Class C misdemeanor. A person who is not licensed may not bring or maintain an action to recover fees for court reporting services that he or she performed in violation of this chapter. Whenever it appears to the board that any court reporter has violated this chapter, the board may, in its own name, petition the circuit court of the county in which the violation occurred to enjoin the violation.

Alabama Board of Court Reporting Administrative Code, r. 257-X-3-.04 (1) – Every Court Reporter License in Alabama shall lapse on September 30th of each year. The holder of the license may renew such license during the sixty (60) days preceding September 30th by paying the required fee and completion of the application for renewal.

Alabama Board of Court Reporting Administrative Code, r. 257-X-3-.04(2) – It is the responsibility of each licensee to notify the Board in writing of any change address or legal name within thirty (30) days of such change. Failure to receive a renewal form from the Board shall not constitute an excuse for failure to renew licensure.

Disposition:

Board and respondent entered into a consent order under which respondent acknowledged practicing without a renewed license subsequent to September 30, 2020, applied for and received from the board a reinstatement of licensure effective March 23, 2021, and agreed to pay a fine in the amount of $500.
